A LETTER OF ARNOLD J. TOYNBEE TO DAN WHITAKER

(December 14, 1964)

Dear Dan,

Thank you so much for your letter of December 13.

As you are especially interested in history, you have been lucky in being born into your generation, in which the history of the world looks as if it were going to take a decisive turn, one way or the other.

A time that is good for an historian professionally is likely to be an uncomfortable time for him as a human being, but every profession has its occupational risks.

With best wishes,

Yours very sincerely,

Arnold Toynbee
