EDITOR'S NOTE

«Dr. Arnold Toynbee, the eminent British historian, has just returned to Britain from the United States. It was his 19th visit since 1925. And he found a condition of crisis in the country he has known for the best part of half-a-century: a crisis sharpened by the war in Vietnam, but growing out of the enormous increase of American power in the outside world at a time when power, both externally and domestically, is slipping out of the hands of the American people. This is the first of three articles».

Morton's Bibliography, p. 214, no. 23733, 12 April 1967, American Crisis. 3. The People Losing Power). «The second of three articles».
