

Seventh Biennial Conference

21 – 23 June 2023

Conference Programme

Universität Augsburg
Juristische Fakultät

Prof. Dr. Phillip Hellwege M.Jur. (Oxford)

Lehrstuhl für Bürgerliches Recht, Wirtschaftsrecht und Rechtsgeschichte

UNA
Universität
Augsburg
University

Wednesday, 21 June 2023

09:00 – 12:30

---

PhD-workshop (room 1212)

Prof. Dr. Matthew Dyson (Oxford):

Progressing from amateur to scholar and scholar to professor

Prof. Dr. Agustin Parise (Maastricht) /

Prof. Dr. Emanuel van Dongen (Utrecht) /

Dr. Lorren Eldridge (Edinburgh):

Publishing in a law journal

Prof. Dr. Phillip Hellwege (Augsburg):

How to write a thesis in comparative legal history

Prof. Dr. Aniceto Masferrer (Valencia):

The relevance of non-legal ideas and sources in the making of legal institutions

12:30 – 13:30

---

Lunch for the participants of the PhD-workshop in the central refectory

13:00 – 14:00

---

Registration for the conference

On Wednesday (21 June 2023), the conference office will be placed in the faculty lobby.

On Thursday (22 June 2023) and Friday (23 June 2023), it will be placed in room 1015.

---

We thank our sponsors who make this event possible.
Please visit their book tables in the conference office.

Duncker & Humblot · Berlin

BRILL

Springer

C.H. BECK

Nomos

ES  ERICH
SCHMIDT
VERLAG

MAX PLANCK INSTITUTE
FOR LEGAL HISTORY
AND LEGAL THEORY

LIT VERLAG

Berlin – Münster – London – Wien – Zürich

14:00 – 15:45

---

Panel 1 (room 2001):
The emergence, history, methods and ends of comparative legal studies

Chair: Prof. Dr. Matthew Dyson
(Oxford)

Prof. Dr. Dirk Heirbaut (Ghent):
Contradictory national historiographies:
a boon developing a methodology of comparative legal history?

Prof. Dr. Fernanda Pirie (Oxford):
Global legal history: what can be compared, how, and to what ends?

Dr. Piotr Alexandrowicz (Poznań):
What can we learn from the early modern comparative law? The case of the Tractatus de comparatione iuris civilis et canonici by Johann Emerich von Rosbach

---

Panel 2 (room 2003):
Popular Legal Literature.
A comparative perspective on the Austrian General Civil Code (ABGB)

Chair: Prof. Dr. Ulrike Müßig (Passau)

Prof. Dr. Gerald Kohl (Vienna):
Austria(-Hungary)

Prof. Dr. Annamaria Monti (Milano):
Lombardy and Venetia

Prof. Dr. Martin Skop (Brno):
Bohemia and Czechoslovakia

15:45 – 16:15

---

Coffee break

---

Panel 3 (room 1012):
Comparative constitutional history in Central and Eastern Europe:
specificity of conditions in the historical development of the region

Chair: Prof. Dr. Matthias Rossi
(Augsburg)

Prof. Dr. Oleksiy Kresin (Kyiv / Lausanne):
Early modern Ukrainian constitutionalism:
comparative prospects

Prof. Dr. Manuel Gutan (Sibiu):
The concept of “constitutional imitation”
in comparative constitutional history

Prof. Dr. Lóránt Csink (Budapest):
The use of historical approaches in comparative constitutionalism

Prof. Dr. Michał Gałędek (Gdańsk):
National tradition or western pattern?
Sources of inspiration for Polish constitutionalism at the beginning of the nineteenth century

---

Panel 4 (room 1212):
The exchange of law books and the role of newspapers in comparative legal history

Chair: Prof. Dr. Agustin Parise (Maastricht)

*Prof. Dr. Antonio Annino (Firenze) /
Dr. María Teresa Calderón Pérez (Bogotá):*
A creative reading of Benjamin Constant
by a Colombian liberal

Prof. Dr. Laura Beck Varela (Madrid):
Creative readings of Heineccius in Mexico

Arthur Barrêto de Almeida Costa (Firenze):
Citation networks in administrative law books from the civil law world (nineteenth century)

Dr. Julie Rocheton (Frankfurt):
Newspaper and civil codes. The case of nineteenth-century North America

---

16:15 – 18:00

---

Panel 5 (room 2001):
“Plutarch revisited”
(Parallel) biographies in comparative
legal history

Chair: Prof. Dr. Annamaria Monti
(Milano)

Prof. Dr. Orna Alyagon Darr
(Sapir Academic College):

British and continental heritage in the history of prison visiting in mandatory
Palestine: the story of Kalman Kupfer

Prof. Dr. Luisa Brunori (ENS, Paris):

Three jurists between Spain and New Spain: Tomas de Mercado, Juan de Hevia
Bolanos, and Diego de Avedano and the differentiation between Spanish law and derecho indiano

Prof. Dr. Assaf Likhovski (Tel Aviv):

Religious law and radical politics: the parallel lives of two colonial legal scholars

---

Panel 6 (room 2003):
Religion and law

Chair: Dr. Piotr Alexandrowicz (Poznań)

Prof. Dr. Łukasz Gołaszewski (Warsaw):

Cases about the tithes from Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth before the Sacra Romana Rota. Polish laws and proceedings in the light from the outside

Prof. Dr. Ulrike Müßig (Passau):

Comparare est considerare (Leibniz)

Dr. Paolo Astorri (Copenhagen):

The protection of fame and reputation in early modern Catholic and Lutheran moral theology. A comparison between Azpilcueta and Horneius

15:45 – 16:15

---

Coffee break

---

Panel 7 (room 1012):

Specifics of the constitutional enactment of the right to work in the constitutional documents of the Soviet bloc

Chair: Prof. Dr. Matthias Rossi
(Augsburg)

Dr. Gábor Bathó (Budapest):

Rights to labour in the Hungarian constitutions during the Soviet-type dictatorships (1919, 1949–1989)

*Prof. Dr. Janis Lazdins (Riga) /
Prof. Dr. Sanita Osipova (Riga):*

Right to work – right or duty in Soviet constitutional law

Prof. Dr. Petra Skrejkova (Prague):

The constitutional right to work as a means to state enforcement

---

Panel 8 (room 1212):

The formation of Israeli law from comparative historical perspectives

Chair: Prof. Dr. Daniel Wolff (Augsburg)

*Prof. Dr. Nir Kedar
(Sapir Academic College):*

The East-European influence on Israeli law and civic ideas

Prof. Dr. Avid Rubin (Ben-Gurion University):

Myths of legal continuity and the resonance of Ottoman law in Israel

Dr. Yair Sagy (Haifa):

Chained reactions: historical-comparative perspectives on the Israeli Court for Administrative Affairs

---

Wednesday, 21 June 2023

18:00 – 18:30

---

Opening Addresses (room 1009)

Prof. Dr. Phillip Hellwege (Augsburg)

Organizing Committee

Prof. Dr. Matthew Dyson (Oxford)

President of the European Society for Comparative Legal History

Prof. Dr. Ferdinand Wollenschläger (Augsburg)

Dean of the Faculty of Law, University of Augsburg

Prof. Dr. Peter Welzel (Augsburg)

Vice-President, University of Augsburg

18:30 – 19:30

---

Keynote 1 (room 1009)

Chair: Prof. Dr. Matthew Dyson (Oxford)

Prof. Dr. Rebecca Scott (Ann Arbor):

Habeas corpus turned inside out: the dynamics of peremptory enslavement in the nineteenth century Americas

19:30 – 21:00

---

Reception with flying dinner in the faculty

09:00 – 10:45

---

Panel 9 (room 2001):

Methodologies in legal history: oral legal history and computational linguistics

Chair: Prof. Dr. Jørn Øyrehagen Sunde (Oslo)

Prof. Dr. Karin Sein (Tartu) /

Prof. Dr. Merike Ristikivi (Tartu):

Choices on the table: oral legal history and comparison of legal systems in reform debates in Estonia in the 1990ties

Dr. Caroline Laske (Louvain):

Legal capacity of medieval women: intertextuality and intervisuality in late medieval law texts

Prof. Dr. Jørn Øyrehagen Sunde (Oslo):

60 years of change in Nordic supreme courts – oral history and statistics in contemporary comparative legal history

---

Panel 10 (room 2003):

Diplomacy and law in urban and maritime contexts in the early modern period

Chair: Prof. Dr. Luisa Brunori (ENS, Paris)

Prof. Dr. Frederik Dhondt (Brussels):

Knowledge production in the French King's foreign office (1757). Antoine Pecquet jr's sequel to Montesquieu's Esprit des Loix

Dr. Stefano Cattelan (Brussels):

Maritime neutrality under pressure: French diplomacy in Northern Europe during the Nine Years' War (1688–1697)

Daisy Turnbull (Portsmouth / Halmstad):

A comparative history of eighteenth-century wrecking legislation: problems of legal definitions, jurisdictions, and prosecution in British and Swedish courts

10:45 – 11:15

---

Coffee break

---

Panel 11 (room 1012):

A comparative legal history of human rights

Chair: Prof. Dr. Annamaria Monti
(Milano)

Prof. Dr. David M. Rabban (Austin):

Foreign influences on the American law of academic freedom

Clemens Beckenberger (Vienna):

Judicial independence after the revolutions 1848/49 in Austria and Germany

Prof. Dr. Guy Seidman (Tel Aviv) / Shani Schnitzer (Tel Aviv):

Legal protections of human rights as regimes change: the Israeli case in comparative perspective

---

Panel 12 (room 1212):

The administration of justice and procedural law in comparative historical perspectives

Chair: Dr. Stephen Hower (Ghent)

Richard McBride (Belfast):

The failure to modernise the office of the Irish Lord Chancellor (1880–1915): a comparison with the developments in Great Britain

Prof. Dr. Emanuel van Dongen (Utrecht):

The emergence and the evolution of the concept of abuse of (procedural) rights in Italy, Germany, the Netherlands and the (lack of this concept in the) United Kingdom

---

11:15 – 13:00

---

Panel 13 (room 2001):
Legal theory, comparative methods,
and legal education

Chair: Prof. Dr. Annamria Monti
(Milano)

Prof. Dr. Agustín Parise (Maastricht):
Cossio's theory, Wigmore's quest, and a Pan-American circulation of legal ideas
(1944–1963)

Dr. Miriam Gassner-Olechowski (Vienna):
Methodological transfer and migration of Austrian legal scholars to the US 1933–
1945 by the example of Helen Silving-Ryu

Ariel Engel Pessa (São Paulo):
Brazilian and German legal education in the nineteenth century: a brief comparative study

---

Panel 14 (room 2003):
Aspects of commercial legal history in comparative perspectives

Chair: Prof. Dr. Phillip Hellwege
(Augsburg)

Gilles Hebben (Lille):
The Levant company, the East
India Company, and the *Verenigde
Oostindische Compagnie*: a comparison of two systems of corporate governance and two legal systems during the seventeenth century

Dr. Filippo Contarini (Paris):
Comparing legal history from below:
Swiss merchants and French trade law
(1673–1791)

Mariane Tenorio Alves Nunes (Lille):
Singularities of Brazilian commercial law in América Portuguesa (sixteenth to nineteenth centuries)

13:00 – 14:00

---

Lunch

---

Panel 15 (room 1012):

Legal history and mass migration.
Integration, exclusion, and criminalization of Migrants in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Chair: Prof. Dr. Michele Pifferi (Ferrara)

Dr. Alessia Maria Di Stefano (Catania):

The effects of exclusionist legislation on Italian emigrants in the United States between the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Prof. Dr. Francesco Rotondo (Naples):

Italian criminal anthropology in Argentina: a short-circuit between migration, law, and literature

Prof. Dr. Eliana Augusti (Salento):

Ius migrandi: between sovereignty and hospitality. States prerogatives and international law in Europe between the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries

---

Panel 16 (room 1212):

A comparative history of succession law

Chair: Dr. Dorota Miler (Augsburg)

Dr. Philipp Scholz (Hamburg):

Revocation by marriage and revocation by divorce: a historical and comparative analysis of English and German succession law

Dr. Dr. Christoph Schmetterer (Halle):

The development of allograph testaments in Germany and Austria

Dr. Jonathan Brown (Stirling):

Challenging orthodoxy in comparative succession law: a Scoto-Austrian study

---

14:00 – 15:45

---

Panel 17 (room 2001):
Public welfare, public health and the law in comparative perspectives

Chair: Prof. Dr. Phillip Hellwege
(Augsburg)

Dr. David Schorr (Tel Aviv):

A tale of two cities: Nuisance, public welfare and private rights in wartime London and Tel Aviv

Prof. Dr. Marton Varju (Vienna) / Judit Sándor (Vienna):

Protecting human health in state socialist Central Europe: a common aim and disparate laws?

Dr. Ely Aaronson (Haifa):

Transnational configurations of the criminalization-racialization nexus and the historical origins of cannabis prohibitions

---

Panel 18 (room 2003):

The contribution of case law to the making of sexual crimes (1870–1970): rape and adultery in comparative perspective

Chair: Prof. Dr. Martin Sunnqvist (Lund)

Prof. Dr. Aniceto Masferrer (Valencia):

The making of adultery in Spain: the contribution of the Supreme Court (1870–1978)

Prof. Dr. Maria Clara da Cunha Calheiros de Carvalho (Minhos):

Gender, sex, and marriage on trial: the criminalization of adultery in Portugal throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Prof. Dr. Janwillem Oosterhuis (Maastricht):

The Dutch Supreme Court on rape and sexual assault between 1886 and 1991

Prof. Dr. José Franco-Chasán (Valencia / Madrid):

Statutory rape as the backbone of dishonest offences in the framework of Spanish criminal case law (1870–1995)

15:45 – 16:15

---

Coffee break

---

Panel 19 (room 1012):

A comparative history of private law

Chair: Prof. Dr. Merike Ristikivi (Tartu)

Prof. Dr. Joao de Oliveira Geraldes (Lisbon):

Promises, causa (consideration), and abstraction

Christoph Resch (Frankfurt):

Contractual entire agreement clauses in the common and the civil law tradition

Igor Krzysztof Adamczyk (Warsaw):

Favor debitoris. Protection of the debtor in the performance of obligation in the European legal tradition

Prof. Dr. Filippo Rossi (Milano):

The past is not a foreign land. Nineteenth-century codes as a (supposed) watershed between old and new

---

Panel 20 (room 1212):

Sovereignty in comparative perspectives

Chair: Dr. Raphaël Cahen
(Giessen / Brussels)

Dr. Charlotte Johann (Cambridge):

Friedrich Carl von Savigny, the conflict of law, and the problem of imperial sovereignty

Prof. Dr. Luna Sabastian (London):

Conquest, sovereignty, and the law in British India

Dr. Imre Képešy (Budapest):

The influence of the provisional judicial rules on Transylvania and Croatia-Slavonia

---

16:15 – 18:00

---

Panel 21 (room 2001):
Law and politics in comparative-historical perspectives

Chair: Prof. Dr. Phillip Hellwege
(Augsburg)

Van Phuc Nguyen (Macerata):

Concept of law and the (in)visibility of same-sex relations in the legal systems of Confucianist countries: a comparative study of imperial China and Vietnam

*Prof. Dr. Laetitia Guerlain /
Prof. Dr. Christophe Lastécouères (Bordeaux):*

Purging the collaborators of Japanese occupation in French Indochina. The Cour de justice de l'Indochine (1946–1950)

Dr. Hannah Katharina Burkard (Zurich):

The German Truth Commission – An alternative approach in coming to terms with the past

---

Panel 22 (room 2003):
The role of the judiciary in the making of modern criminal law (1870–1970)

Chair: Prof. Dr. Aniceto Masferrer
(Valencia)

Tatiana Alekseeva (Moscow):

Jurisprudence in the Russian Empire, the RSFSR and the USSR: influence on general and special criminal law provisions

*Prof. Dr. Michał Gałędek (Gdansk) /
Paulina Kamberov (Gdansk):*

The influence of jurisprudence in the making of a criminal law in twentieth-century Poland

Prof. Dr. Martin Sunnqvist (Lund):

Case law between two criminal codes

19:00

---

Reception of the City of Augsburg, “Goldener Saal”, Augsburg City Hall
Welcome Address by Mayor Bernd Kränzle

20:00

---

Conference dinner, Riegele Wirtshaus, Frölichstraße 26

---

Panel 23 (room 1012):

A comparative history of private law

Chair: Prof. Dr. Emőd Veress
(Budapest / Miskolc)

Dr. Vincent van Hoof (Nijmegen):

Publicity of security rights in movables and path dependency

Paweł Kaźmierski (Krakow):

Toward socialism: the evolution of divorce law in East Germany and the Polish
People's Republic from 1945 to the mid-1960s

Dr. Dorota Miler (Augsburg):

Contract termination of a contract in Germany and Poland during the interwar period of the twentieth century: a history of an improved legal transplant

Dr. Asya Ostroukh (Barbados):

The evolution on emphyteusis in Quebec
civi law: Roman, French, or independent?

---

---

Panel 24 (room 1212):

Aspects of international law from comparative historical perspectives

Chair: N.N.

Prof. Dr. Sebastiaan Vandenbogaerde (Antwerp / Ghent):

A nation's responsibility? Legal instruments to reconstruct Europe after World War One

Prof. Dr. Budislav Vukas (Rijeka):

Establishment of a new state through an international agreement as a modality for resolving international disputes between Italy and Yugoslavia in the twentieth century

Dr. Derk Venema (Heerlen):

Seven supreme courts under Nazi occupation: pragmatism versus moral hygiene

---

09:00 – 10:45

---

Panel 25 (room 2001):
Pluralistic governance:
researching Hanse cooperation beyond classical concepts of “nation-state”

Chair: Prof. Dr. Merike Ristikivi (Tartu)

Prof. Dr. Ulla Kypta (Hamburg):

Functional changes in the governance of merchants: the case of the Bruges kontor

Prof. Dr. Sören Koch (Bergen):

The case of the Bergen kontor

Prof. Dr. Johann Ruben Leiss (Oslo):

Polycentric jurisdictions in the Hanse and in contemporary international law

---

Panel 26 (room 2003):
Comparative histories of criminal law

Chair: Prof. Dr. Matthew Dyson
(Oxford)

Alan Wruck Garcia Rangel (São Paulo) /
Gregório Schroder Sliwka (Porto Alegre):

Circulation of legal models in the nineteenth century: the construction of the house of correction in Brazil (1830–1850)

Oscar Karlsson (Portsmouth / Halmstad):
English hulks and Swedish fortresses – a comparison of improvised imprisonment circa 1700–1850

András Biczó (Debrecen):

Exploring the traces of foreign legal impressions in a Hungarian criminal jurisprudential work in the middle of the eighteenth century

10:45 – 11:15

---

Coffee break

---

Panel 27 (room 1012):

Comparative histories of labour law

Chair: Prof. Dr. Peter Kreutz (Augsburg)

Prof. Dr. Piotr Pomianowski (Warsaw):

Corvée and recht der zucht in the Duchy of Warsaw and in the Congress of Poland

Jasper Van de Woestijne (Ghent):

Balancing law and labour: the history of specialised labour courts in Belgium and France

Nina Cozzi (Frankfurt):

Equal pay in Italy and France: a legal historical analysis of divergent implementations of EU law

---

Panel 28 (room 1212):

Comparative histories of constitutional law

Chair: Prof. Dr. Binyamin Blum (Hastings)

Prof. Dr. Valdis Blūzma (Riga):

The constitutional law of the Baltic States in the interwar period: from liberal democracy to authoritarian regimes (1918–1940)

Dr. Judit Beke-Martos (Bochum):

The historical, the sacred, the pompous, and the constitutional: the constitutional relevance of King Charles III Coronation in 2023

Prof. Dr. Thomas Mohr (Dublin):

Irish constitutional history in political cartoons, 1920–1923

---

Friday, 23 June 2023

11:15 – 12:15

---

Keynote 2 (room 2001)

Chair: Prof Dr. Matthew Dyson (Oxford)

Prof. Dr. Kentaro Matsubara (Tokyo):

Comparison, confrontation, and co-optation: a history of improvising legal systems in a global context?

12:15 – 13:00

---

Annual General Meeting (room 2001)

Chair: Prof. Dr. Matthew Dyson (Oxford)

For members of the ESCLH only

13:00 – 14:00

---

Lunch

14:00 – 15:45

---

Panel 29 (room 2001):

A comparative history of law in the Middle Ages

Chair: Prof. Dr. Guido Rossi
(Edinburgh)

Dr. Brage Thunestvedt Hatløy (Bergen):
Legal procedure in medieval Scandinavia
– comparing systematical representations of procedural law

Prof. Dr. Andreja Katančević (Belgrade):
Saxon autonomous courts in medieval
Bosnia

Prof. Dr. Tomislav Karlovic (Zagreb):
The long twelfth century and legal developments in the outremer – in line with the continent or not?

---

Double panel 30 + 34 (room 2003):

A histoire du droit croisée of Central Europe in the interwar period

Chair: Prof. Dr. Martin Löhnig
(Regensburg)

Prof. Dr. Mirela Krešić (Zagreb):
Yugoslav patent law in the Central European context

Prof. Dr. Martin Löhnig (Regensburg):
German-Austrian commercial law in the Central European context

Dr. Dunja Milotić (Zagreb):
Yugoslav criminal procedural law in the
Central European context

15:45 – 16:15

---

Coffee break

---

Panel 31 (room 1012):

Slavery, colonial history, and the law

Chair: N.N.

Dr. Mariana Dias Paes (Frankfurt):

Law and slavery in West Central Africa: Ovimbundo and Portuguese legal systems in the early modern period

Dr. Sven Korzilius (Santiago de Chile):

Comparative slavery in legal history research and teaching

Lillian Asiimwe (Court Mediator, Chief Magistrate Court Mityana):

The ghost of a colonial legal history still haunts post-colonial African legal systems. Case study of the civil and common law legal systems resurfacing in the new Member States of the East Africa

---

Panel 32 (room 1212):

Comparative histories of criminal law

Chair: N.N.

Prof. Dr. Christian Zendri (Trento):

Between two worlds, between two laws. The crime of witchcraft between Italy and Germany in Girolamo Tartarotti's Del congresso notturno delle lammie (On Nocturnal Gatherings of Witches, 1749)

Prof. Dr. Marcin Lysko (Bialystok):

Legal-comparative analysis of the misdemeanour law systems in European socialist countries

---

16:15 – 18:00

---

Panel 33 (room 2001):

Legal knowledge in imperial contexts:
the dynamics of early modern colonial laws

Chair: Prof. Dr. Heikki Pihlajamäki
(Helsinki)

Dr. Nathaly Mancilla Órdenes (Helsinki):

An ocean of papers in a networked empire: the relevance of the official correspondence in the normative production of the Portuguese administration on the Diamond District (1771–1808)

Dr. Gustavo Zatelli Correa (Helsinki):

Police regulations on colonial ground: a legal comparative view of the British Empire in eighteenth century (Jamaica, Virginia, and Ireland)

Dr. Airton Ribeiro (Helsinki):

Legal Books in the overseas: a comparison between colonial magistrates' private libraries of the Iberian empires

---

Double panel 30 + 34 (room 2003):

A histoire du droit croisée of Central Europe in the interwar period

Chair: Prof. Dr. Martin Löhnig
(Regensburg)

Prof. Dr. Anna Moszyńska (Toruń):

Polish corporate law in the Central European context

Prof. Dr. Petra Skrejkova (Prague):

Czechoslovakian marriage law in a Central European context

Dr. Kamila Staudigl-Ciechowicz (Vienna):

Austrian limited liability company law in a Central European context

---

End of conference

---

Panel 35 (room 1012):

Social policies and comparative legal history

Chair: N.N.

Dr. Stefano Malpassi (Ferrara):

A corporatist critique to corporatism.
Some Italian interpretations of the New Deal policies in the 1930s

Prof. Dr. Bruno Debaenst (Uppsala):

An international catalyst of national legal development – The international Committee of Social Insurance (1889–1914)

Wouter de Rycke (Brussels):

In the shadows of empire and republic.
The reception of legalist Anglo-American peace propaganda in France (1815–1867)

---

Panel 36 (room 1212):

Comparative histories of administrative law

Chair: Dr. Raphaël Cahen
(Giessen / Brussels)

Prof. Dr. Laila Maia Galvão (Cairo):

The transformations of police power in Brazil and in Egypt through the nineteenth century

Dr. Przemysław Gawron (Warsaw) /

Dr. Jan Jerzy Sowa (Warsaw):

The Adaptation of foreign patterns: the influence of western European military law and military organization on the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth in the seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries

Jan Langemeyer (Oxford):

Procedural fairness and the distinction between the judiciary and the public administration: England, France, and Germany (1870–1914)

---

---

Venue

Faculty of Law, University of Augsburg, Building H, Universitätsstraße 24, 86159 Augsburg

---

Contact

Universität Augsburg
Juristische Fakultät

Prof. Dr. Phillip Hellwege M.Jur. (Oxford)

Lehrstuhl für Bürgerliches Recht,
Wirtschaftsrecht und Rechtsgeschichte

Universitätsstraße 24
86159 Augsburg

Telefon: +49 (0)821 598 4611

E-Mail: phillip.hellwege@jura.uni-augsburg.de