The Italian Yearbook of International Law

Editor: Massimo Iovane

Founded in 1975, The Italian Yearbook of International Law aims to disseminate Italian scholarship and practice in the field of international law among non-Italian speaking scholars and practitioners. It features:

- (i) original, peer-reviewed contributions on a wide range of topical issues;
- (ii) detailed reports on Italian case law, diplomatic and parliamentary practice, legislation and treaty practice; and
- (iii) a systematic bibliographical index of Italian literature in the field of international law.

The Yearbook also includes a number of reports on the practice of the main international courts and tribunals and extended book reviews.
