A MILLION DESTITUTE MOSLEMS

The Near and Middle East Association have issued the following appeal: –

According to statistics published by the International Red Cross, there are in Anatolia at the present time over a million people, including women and children, who are homeless and destitute as a result of the war.

The relief societies who have made a joint appeal for Greek and Armenian refugees in the Near East have not found it possible to include these Moslem sufferers within the scope of their work. But anyone who wishes for humanitarian reasons to alleviate this widespread distress may send a donation direct to the bankers of the British Red Crescent, Messrs. Coutts and Co., 440, Strand, W.C. We also understand that the Imperial War Relief Fund and the Save the Children Fund can immediately utilize for this purpose any donations earmarked for relief in Anatolia.

The appeal is signed by Major General Lord Edward Gleichen, the Right Hon. Syed Ameer Ali, Captain E.N. Bennett, Sir Graham Bower, Mr. Leland Buxton, Viscount Chelmsford, the Bishop of Chelmsford, Dr. Ernest H. Griffin, Lieutenant Colonel the Hon. Aubrey Herbert, M.P., the Chief rabbi, Lord Meston, Sir E. Denison Ross, Professor Arnold J. Toynbee, Lady Kitty Vincent, Bishop Welldon, Mr. Israel Zangwill, and the Bishop of Bradford.
