

Closing Workshop

Narratives in the Criminal Process

Solstrand 30.10–01.11 2020

Organized by the research project «A Narratology of Criminal Cases», funded by the University of Bergen and the Research Council of Norway

Friday October 30 (English Webinar)

12:00 Lunch (for guests that are physically present)

13:00 Espen Ingebrigsten: Welcome

13:15 Simon Stern (videolink): «Reasonable Doubters: Cross-Examination, Detection, Suspicion».

14:15 Break

14:30 Flora di Donato (videolink): «Dynamic Storytelling to Support Legal Education. Case Studies».

15:30 Break

15:45 Frode Helmich Pedersen: «The Narrative in the Judgment: Some Unresolved Issues About Plot».

16:45 Discussion

19:00 Dinner

Saturday November 1 (Seminar in Norwegian)*

- 08:45 Coffee
- 09:00 Arild Linneberg: «Siegfried Kracauer and Historiography. Some new, old Challenges to the Construction of factual stories».
- 10:30 Break
- 10:45 Katrine Holter: «The Court's Stories of the Police as a Victim of Harassment».
- 12:15 Lunch
- 13:15 Espen Stueland: «On Pandemic Narratives»
- 14:45 Break
- 15:00 Espen Ingebrigtsen: «Dos and Don'ts in the Court's Story of Facts».
- 19:00 Dinner

Participants (physical)

1. Frode Helmich Pedersen
2. Espen Ingebrigtsen
3. Erlend Liisberg
4. Arild Linneberg
5. Janne Sund
6. Svein Atle Skålevåg
7. Espen Stueland
8. Katrine Holter
9. Sofie Marhaug
10. Kjersti Aarstein

Participants (digital)

1. Flora di Donato
2. Simon Stern

In addition: All or friends and colleagues who follow the webinar.

A warm welcome to everyone!

* This part of the workshop will be held in Norwegian. The papers are listed in English for your information. Should you wish to follow the seminar on Zoom, please send an email to frode.pedersen@uib.no